Τασκέντ
 Ουζμπεκιστάν

18
ΑΥΓ

Το Τασκέντ είναι η πρωτεύουσα και η μεγαλύτερη πόλη του Ουζμπεκιστάν. Το Τασκέντ είναι μία από τις παλαιότερες πόλεις στην Κεντρική Ασία με ιστορία 2200 ετών. Τα αρχιτεκτονικά αξιοθέατα του Τασκέντ είναι αξιοσημείωτα για το μοναδικό και πρωτότυπο στυλ τους. Συνδύασαν τις παραδόσεις της Κεντρικής Ασίας, εμπλουτισμένες από τις επιτεύξεις της Ισλαμικής αρχιτεκτονικής, και την επίδραση του Ευρωπαϊκού αστικού σχεδιασμού από τον 18ο αιώνα. Τα κορυφαία ιστορικά αξιοθέατα στο Τασκέντ βρίσκονται κυρίως στην ιθαγενή πόλη του Τασκέντ. Το πιο διάσημο ιστορικό αξιοθέατο της πόλης είναι, φυσικά, το συγκρότημα Khazrat Imam. Το Τασκέντ είναι μια αναγεννώμενη πόλη, οπότε θα βρείτε πολλά ενδιαφέροντα αξιοθέατα.

Tashkent City Highlights Guided Walking Tour

Group Tour (Join-in)

19
ΑΥΓ

Step into the heart of Tashkent on this immersive walking tour that blends history, culture, and local life into one unforgettable experience. Begin your journey at the sacred Hazrati Imam Complex, where centuries-old Islamic heritage comes alive. From there, dive into the vibrant atmosphere of Chorsu Bazaar, a bustling marketplace where colorful spices, fresh produce, and traditional Uzbek treats fill the air with irresistible aromas. Continue your exploration underground in the Tashkent Metro, an attraction in itself with its stunning Soviet-era architecture and ornate station designs. Emerging into the city's open spaces, stroll across Independence Square (Mustakillik Square), the nation's central landmark, and then wander down The Boulevard, a lively promenade lined with shops, cafés, and leafy paths. The tour concludes at the iconic Amir Temur Square, where the statue of the great conqueror stands as a proud symbol of Uzbekistan's history and resilience.

Itinerary

Your journey begins at the Hast Imam Complex, the spiritual heart of Tashkent and a major religious hub in Uzbekistan. Explore the beautifully preserved collection of Islamic architecture Duration: 1 hour.

A 16th-century theological school with intricately designed facades. Duration: 5 minutes.

The Tillya Sheikh Mosque stands as a beacon of Islamic tradition and a symbol of the Tashkent's historical grandeur. Duration: 5 minutes.

A treasure trove of ancient manuscripts. Famous for housing the Uthman Quran, the oldest known Quran in the world. Duration: 5 minutes.

The Center for Islamic Civilization is the largest cultural, scientific, and educational complex in Uzbekistan. It houses a museum, a research institute, libraries, international partner organizations, scientific laboratories, centers of traditional crafts, and educational departments.

At the heart of Tashkent's old town, Chorsu Bazaar is a bustling, centuries-old marketplace. You'll wander through vibrant stalls under a massive turquoise dome, soaking in the aromas of fresh spices, dried fruits, and sizzling street food like plov and shashlik. Engage with friendly vendors, haggle for souvenirs like intricate ceramics or colorful textiles, and sample local delicacies such as non (Uzbek flatbread) or halva. The sensory overload of colors, sounds, and scents offers a true taste of Uzbek culture. Duration: 30 minutes.

Explore the architectural marvels of the Tashkent Metro, one of Central Asia's most stunning subway systems. You'll visit iconic stations like Kosmonavtlar, adorned with cosmic-themed mosaics honoring Soviet cosmonauts, and Alisher Navoi, featuring intricate Islamic-inspired designs. Each station is a work of art, with chandeliers, marble columns, and vibrant tilework. You'll ride the metro, snap photos (permitted since 2018), and learn about its history as a Soviet-era masterpiece and former bomb shelter. Duration: 20 minutes.

In this grand civic space, you'll stroll through manicured gardens and monumental arches, marveling at the iconic Ezgulik Arch and the eternal flame. See the towering statue commemorating Uzbekistan's independence and see the poignant Crying Mother Monument, honoring WWII sacrifices. Duration: 20 minutes.

Walk along this lively, tree-lined avenue, Tashkent's modern pulse. You'll pass chic cafes, boutique shops, and contemporary fountains, perfect for people-watching. The Boulevard's relaxed vibe offers a chance to experience Tashkent's urban energy, with opportunities to browse local crafts or enjoy street performances if timed right.

At this historic square, you'll stand beneath the imposing statue of Amir Temur (Tamerlane), the 14th-century conqueror, astride his horse. Surrounded by lush gardens, the State Museum of the Timurids, and the grand Palace of Forums, you'll explore the legacy of this national hero. Take in the striking clock towers of the Uzbekistan Hotel and enjoy a leisurely walk, learning about Tashkent's role as a cultural and political hub. Duration: 20 minutes.
